O life, comes to life back again
And oh these times, I've been fighting back the pain

Till the day it comes when I see Your face
Let my life be a living grace

In the moments with You
I will sing Your name
And all my days proclaim
In the moments with You
God my strength, my shield
O my soul renewed
In the moments with You

O life, comes to life back again
And O these times, through Your hope I'll find a way

So that all the days of my life
This anthem of praise that beats inside
Of Your love, of Your love
