VERSE 1

The battles I faced, I tried on my own
Those struggles that chased me borne alone
Searching for ways to pick myself again
Only to find my story's in Your hands

VERSE 2

Deep calls to deep, in You I learn to trust
When I am weak I know that You are God
Fixing my eyes on what I cannot see
Cause although the world may fail
Your word forever stands

PRE-CHORUS

My mind tries to reason
But Your ways are different
What I can not see only you can see
My flesh has tried to be strong
But only your word can keep me going on (You've been right here all along)

CHORUS

In You I will trust
Not my ways but Yours be done
I'm letting go so take this heart
In You my strength revived
I know Your grace will be enough
My hope in You
My life, come take control
To the end of myself I come
In the quiet and stillness I know
I'll be still, know You are God
(2nd time no repeat of last line)
I'll be still, know You are God
